

Dear Barry,

Just a quick note to thank you for your help with our most recent project. Your ability to understand the problem, think it through and troubleshoot during the work made the whole situation downright easy. All of this and you came in under budget! I am glad we found you and consider you part of our team. I wish you continued success.

Sincerely,

Philip L. Schefke D.D.S.